*Ref: Election Mode Meeting Number 03/22
Decision Number 21/22
Appeal No: A01/22*

Appellant: Mr Amjad Ali - Nomination by "The People's Alliance"

The Electoral Commission has received an Appeal against the decision of the Supervisor of Elections ["SoE"] to disqualify the nomination of Amjad Ali ["Appellant"]. The Appellant asserts that he is duly qualified to be nominated under the Electoral Act 2014 ["Act"].

The Electoral Commission noted that, in order to qualify for nomination, a candidate must meet the requirements of section 23 of the Electoral Act, 2014 which states the following;

23.— (1) A person is not eligible to be elected as a member of Parliament unless duly nominated as a candidate in the election.

(2) A candidate for election to Parliament may be nominated by a registered political party or nominated as an independent candidate in accordance with the procedures prescribed in this Act.

(3) A person is not eligible to be nominated as a candidate unless he or she is a registered voter, and a person who has been disqualified from voting by an order of a court under section 151 shall for this purpose be regarded as not registered to vote.

(4) A person is eligible to be nominated as a candidate for election to Parliament only if the person—

(a) is a citizen of Fiji, and does not hold citizenship of any other country;

(b) is registered in the Register of Voters;

(c) is ordinarily resident in Fiji for at least 2 years immediately before being nominated;

(d) is not an undischarged bankrupt;

(e) is not a member of the Electoral Commission, and has not been a member of that Commission at any time during the 4 years immediately before being nominated;

(f) is not subject to a sentence of imprisonment when nominated;

(g) has not, at any time during the 8 years immediately before being nominated, been convicted of any offence under any law for which the maximum penalty is a term of imprisonment of 12 months or more; and

(h) has not been guilty of any offence under a law relating to elections, registration of political parties or registration of voters, including any offence prescribed under this Act.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) (c), a person shall only qualify to be ordinarily resident in Fiji for at least 2 years immediately before being nominated, if that person has been present and living in Fiji for an aggregate period of not less than 18 months out of the 2 years immediately before being nominated; and

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (5), any person who has been out of Fiji for official Government business or duties or has been holding an official Government position in any other country, shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident in Fiji for the purposes of subsection (4) (c).

(7) For the purpose of verification, the Supervisor may make enquiries and, where necessary, require the person to provide the necessary authorisations and declarations to the relevant authorities to assist with the enquiries.

The Electoral Commission, upon receipt of the Appeal, required the SoE to provide all the documents that were obtained by him during the verification process of the nomination of the Appellant. These documents and the evidence provided by the Appellant were carefully scrutinized to determine if the Appellant have met the requirements set out in section 23, and in doing so, the Electoral Commission noted the Appellant has not complied with section 23(4)(c) whereby the Appellant was out of the country for 6 months and 15 days.

Furthermore, based on the response received from SoE, we have also been informed that The People's Alliance has already filed a replacement for the Candidate. By doing so, The People's Alliance has reached the maximum number of Candidates being 55 for the election. The Electoral Commission has noted that under section 26(2) of the Electoral Act 2014, a political party must not nominate more than the total number of seats in Parliament.

Section 26(2) of the Electoral Act, it states as follows:

“The total number of candidates which a political party may nominate for any general election must not be more than the total number of seats in Parliament, and the total number of candidates which a political party may nominate for any by-election must not be more than the total number of vacant seats in Parliament for which the by election is being held.”

In our findings, the Electoral Commission notes that the appellant does not satisfy the requirement of section 23 and 26(2) of the Electoral Act. Therefore, the Electoral Commission has decided that the Appeal is dismissed.

Dated this 15th day of November 2022
